Gardens Innovation Center
Palm Beach Gardens, FL
March 2018

Gardens Innovation Center at PGA National Commerce Park is the result of a cutting-edge project team, eco-friendly construction, modern architecture, and years of collaboration with client, LRP Properties II, LLC. The project is located in the City of Palm Beach Gardens and contains (2) two new professional office buildings, (1) one of which is working towards LEED Silver Certification and totals approximately 63,500 square-feet. Gardens Innovation Center is set up to attract professional office users along with leading companies specializing in technology, bioscience, and life-science. Cotleur & Hearing was retained to design the site and landscape as well as assist with the approval process for this exciting project. Local artist, Peter Garaj, designed and implemented the innovative public art on site titled, "Hand of time."
