

GROUND ORCHID/ PHILIPPINE GROUND ORCHID

Spathoglottis plicata

GROUND COVER

GROWTH & HABITAT

SIZE: 2'-3' Tall

USDA HARDINESS ZONE: 10a-11

SALT TOLERANCE: Moderate

ORIGIN: Southeast Asia

LIGHT: PARTIAL SUN/SHADE

MOISTURE: Well Drained

DESIGN & AESTHETICS

SHAPE: Upright growth with bright green lanceolate leaves and distinct pleats.

LANDSCAPE USE: Ornamental forb/groundcover. Ideal for ground beds in tropical gardens.

FLOWER: Violet-Pink-Magenta, some have white accent

FRUIT: Six 1" ribbed seed capsules that emerge from the flowers

WILDLIFE: Bees, Butterflies, Hummingbirds

PLANT DESCRIPTION: Evergreen ornamental groundcover with upright growth habit. Long, straight, bright green leaves emerge from pseudobulbs underground to produce vibrant purple and pink flowers that bloom all year long.

PESTS & DISEASES

PESTS: mealy bugs, spider mites

DISEASES: Black sooty mold, Petal Blight, Rust, Black Rot